Re: CNN America, Inc. and Team Video Services,
Case Nos. 5-CA-31828 & 5-CA-33125 (formerly 2-CA-36129)

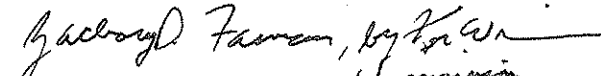

Dear Mr. Heltzer:

As counsel for CNN America in the above-referenced cases, I have received the General Counsel's Opposition to our Motion for an Extension of Time to File Exceptions and Extension of the Page Limit. I feel compelled, in light of the General Counsel's position that our requests are "unnecessary and excessive", to ask your office to recall that CNN, should Judge Amchan's decision be adopted by the Board, would be required to pay millions of dollars in back pay and disrupt many aspects of its business operations. CNN believes that it is entitled to be heard fully in this matter, of enormous significance to CNN, and that due process demands that the National Labor Relations Board be fully informed of CNN's views and consider them fully before making a decision. That was and remains the reason for our requests, which we believe are absolutely necessary to a full and fair consideration of the issues in this matter. The General Counsel's position is, in our view, both without substance and an attempt to impose inappropriate limits on CNN's right to be heard. We hope that your office will allow CNN to express its views in this case completely by granting our Motions. I can assure you that should CNN be able to state its views fully in less than 300 pages, we will not hesitate to do so. It surely is not our desire to burden the record, but to ensure that CNN's arguments are presented fully and fairly to the Board.

Thank you for your consideration of the views expressed herein, and in our Motions.
